When Does a Local Nut...

Become An Offensive, National Embarrassment?

Assemblyman JIM WHEELER said he WOULD VOTE FOR SLAVERY, making him and Nevada a national laughing stock.

“Assemblyman Wheeler’s comments are deeply offensive and have no place in our society. He should retract his remarks and apologize.”

Governor Brian Sandoval.

“The Assembly Republican Caucus hereby reprimands Assemblyman Jim Wheeler for his offensive comments...”

Investigated for living outside his Assembly District. Claimed to be renting a room in a supporter’s house in the District, though a “neighbor” said she never saw him. When asked by a reporter about whether he really lives in his Assembly District, as required by law, said: “Have you seen my girlfriend?? you’d spend the night there, too.”

(Reno Gazette Journal, December 11, 2013)

Calls himself a “Rancher” and says he realized his dream of living in Nevada when he bought a ranch in Gardnerville in 2003. Fails to mention the ranch had no buildings, so he never lived on it, and that he sold it a year later.

Had Ethics Complaint filed against him 2013. Turns out Wheeler didn’t tell the truth about his sources of income, debts (including a $6,168 tax lien), and length of time he lived in Nevada. OOPS. Wheeler “amended” all four of his financial disclosure forms.

IT’S TOO MUCH NUTS.
