

Nominating Committee Report on Republican Candidate Assembly & Senate Office Candidates

Assemblyman Jim Wheeler

State Assembly, District 39 (Incumbent)

Assemblyman Jim Wheeler has worked closely with the Republican Party for many years. He ran to restore his constituents' core conservative values into the legislative process. He has made big strides to keep the voice of his voters in the Republican caucus.

Robin Reedy

State Assembly, District 39 (Challenging Incumbent)

Robin Reedy believes in a limited government which focuses on the health, safety and welfare of its citizens. Ms. Reedy served as Chief of Staff under former Republican Governor Jim Gibbons, which gives her "big office experience." She is running against Assemblyman Jim Wheeler in the primary.

Vickie Dooling

State Assembly, District 41

Vickie Dooling runs a tea party organization in Las Vegas. After a career in meeting and event planning, Vicki has spent her retirement years in political activism around the nation promoting conservative values. She is the sole announced candidate for Assembly District 41 (south Las Vegas) against Democrat Paul Aizley.

Kelly Hurst

State Senate, District 8

Kelly Hurst ran for Assembly in 2012. Kelly has been self-employed for years flipping and remodeling houses for tenants and to sell. Kelly is a proven hard worker who walks and calls into his district. He is well funded, and has been involved in the party for 3 years.

Dr. Vick Gill

State Senate, District 9

Dr. Vick Gill runs a successful medical business. He is well funded, which is important in this district currently held by the Democrats. Dr. Gill is a skilled spokesman for his values, and advocate for the Party.

Carl Bunce

State Senate, District 20 (Challenging Incumbent)

Carl Bunce is running in Senate District 20. Carl has an extensive group of volunteers. For many years, Carl has worked in information technology for the school district. Since 2007, Carl has volunteered his time for the GOP as a strategist. Carl is running on a platform that opposes the mining tax.

Nominating Committee Report on Republican Candidate Assembly Candidates

Jill Dickman

State Assembly, District 31

Jill Dickman is running in a Republican leaning district currently held by Democrat Skip Daily. Jill has been working the district on the ground and is well funded. Jill has been active in the county and state party for a long time.

Assemblyman John Ellison

State Assembly, District 33 (Incumbent)

Assemblyman John Ellison, a native Nevadan, is running for re-election in Assembly District 33 (Elko, Eureka, part of Lincoln County, and White Pine County). Assemblyman Ellison is a rancher with deep roots in Nevada civic and political organizations.

Victoria Seaman

State Assembly, District 34

Victoria Seaman comes prepared with the experience of running in 2012 already under her belt. A successful and gregarious businesswoman, Victoria is also a regular attendee and contributor at the Clark County Central Committee as well as in statewide Republican organizations.

Brent Jones

State Assembly, District 35

Brent Jones is an attorney and entrepreneur. Currently, he owns Real Water. In 2012, he came within a handful of votes of defeating his primary opponent for State Senate. Brent will work a rigorous campaign to pick up this winnable Assembly seat.

Assemblyman Wes Duncan

State Assembly, District 37 (Incumbent)

Assemblyman Wes Duncan, an attorney and Iraq War Veteran, beat Majority leader Marcus Conklin in the biggest surprise upset in 2012 for the GOP. He is a prolific walker, and respects the party base. Assemblyman Duncan is considered independent minded.

Dr. Robin Titus

State Assembly, District 38

Dr. Robin Titus, a Medical Doctor, 4th generation Nevadan, and former Lyon County Chair, is running in Assembly District 38. Dr. Titus is known for her strong convictions for the community she serves.

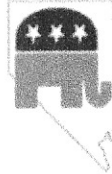

Nominating Committee Report on Republican Candidate

Cort Arlint Candidate for State Controller

Cort Arlint, a tax attorney and Certified Public Accountant, holds a law degree and masters degree. Cort is keenly aware of the financial issues facing Nevada because he worked for the firm that performed audits for the State of Nevada. Although this is Cort's first run for public office, he comes with an eye focused on fiscal responsibility.

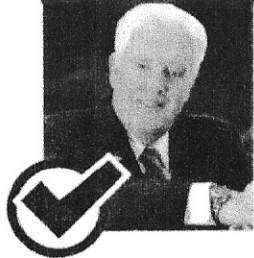

Ron Knecht Candidate for State Controller

Ron Knecht is a University Regent in northern Nevada and was one of the "Mean Fifteen" who stopped taxes dead in their tracks as an Assemblyman. Ron seeks to be State Controller to promote fiscal responsibility. Ron has a law degree, a professional engineer degree and masters degree.

Assemblyman John Hambrick State Assembly, District 2 (Incumbent)

Before becoming an Assemblyman, John Hambrick was Chairman in Clark County. He has fought to preserve a business friendly Nevada, is a voice to fight human trafficking, and is a strong advocate for the Republican Party.

Assemblywoman Michele Fiore State Assembly, District 4 (Incumbent)

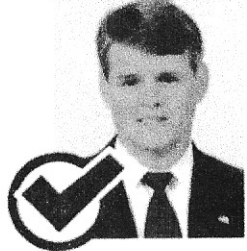

Assemblywoman Michele Fiore is running for re-election in Assembly District 4 (Las Vegas). Assemblywoman Fiore was rated the #1 legislator by the Nevada Research Policy Institute. She is a proven supporter of the 2nd Amendment.

Nominating Committee Report on Republican Candidate Assembly Candidates

Chris Edwards
State Assembly, District 19

Chris Edwards worked very hard in a run for Congress against Dina Titus. He is now campaigning to fill Cresent Hardy's seat in the Assembly that covers Mesquite, North Vegas, Logandale, Henderson and Boulder. Chris has walked almost his whole district already and is well funded. He has been effective in gaining traction and support.

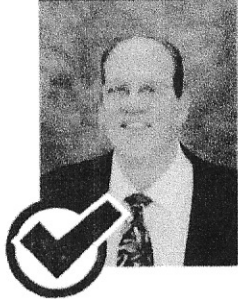

Richard Bunce
State Assembly, District 22 (Challenging Incumbent)

Richard has been active in the GOP since 2007. He served as an information technology volunteer in the Clark County GOP from 2009 until 2013. He also coordinated data for national and federal races in a number of states. Richard works in information technology for a large corporation, and has raised more money than any other candidate in this race.

Rick Fineberg
State Assembly, District 25 (Challenging Incumbent)

Rick practiced as an attorney in worker's comp law for 32 years in southern California before he retired to Reno in 2008. Rick has been involved in the GOP and the community with his wife for many years. He believes in Republican values, and seeks more representation for our values. Rick is running against Assemblyman Pat Hickey in Assembly 25.

Lisa Krasner
State Assembly, District 26 (Challenging Incumbent)

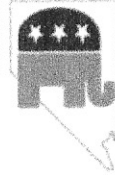

Lisa Krasner is a constitutional attorney and professor. She is running against incumbent Assemblyman Randy Kirner in Assembly 26. Lisa is known for activism benefitting folks in the Lake Tahoe area against county intrusion. Lisa has a team of political professionals guiding her race, and she has been active in the party.

Amy Groves
State Assembly, District 29

Amy Groves is running in Assembly District 29, a district that should belong to Republicans. She has been a business owner of 12 years in the real estate industry, and believes she can lead the charge to pick up this seat in a very winnable race.

Adam Kahn
State Assembly, District 30

Adam is running in Assembly District 30 in Reno. Adam brings youth and grassroots activism to his campaign. Adam is the head of the UNR College Republicans and is thought of as very smart, energetic and well spoken.

