

Shari Buck is Ruining Our Community Her Conduct is Unethical, Wasteful and Deceitful

Shari Buck Commits Ethics Violation

Shari Buck admits to ethics violation that she failed to "provide sufficient information regarding her conflict of interest to inform the public of the nature and extent of the conflict and the potential effect of her action or abstention on her private interests"¹ The law firm that represented Shari Buck has received nearly $70,000 in legal work from the City of North Las Vegas.²

"For the region, the state, and the nation, North Las Vegas is the proverbial 'canary in the coal mine' declared UNLV urban affairs professional Robert Lang. He said years of mismanagement by city leaders (including generous benefits packages for city workers and expensive capital projects including a brand new water treatment facility and city hall) and the lack of a significant commercial sector made North Las Vegas especially vulnerable to economic disruption"

North Las Vegas Bond Rating Crashes

Moody's downgrades North Las Vegas general obligation bonds to A2 from A1 due to poor financial performance.³ Fitch Ratings reduces North Las Vegas general obligation bonds to 'BBB' with negative outlook, which is just one level above JUNK bonds.⁴

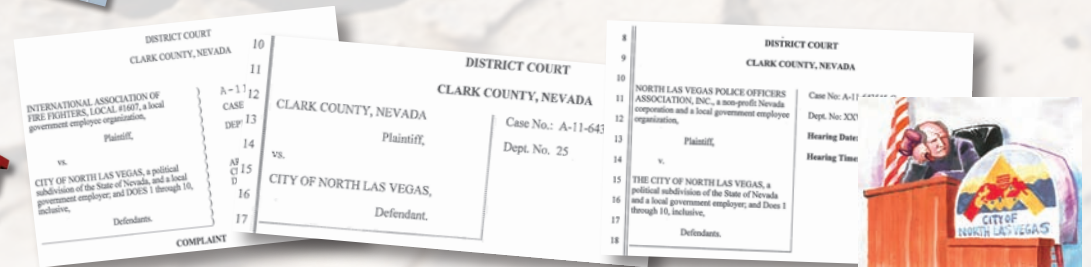

Lawyers Cost Taxpayers Over 3.2 Million Dollars

North Las Vegas Taxpayers have paid more than $3.2 million dollars to outside legal counsel during 2012 and 2013 fiscal years as lawsuits mount!⁵

Wastewater Treatment Plant - Financial Disaster

Shari Buck's Wastewater Treatment Plant will never pay for itself and will cost taxpayers $15 million dollars more annually to remove waste from our city than before it was built. North Las Vegas only saves $3 million annually to process waste, while paying $18 million to finance the debt on the plant's construction. Plus, taxpayers are paying $15 million more to Clark County to build a pipeline in Sloan Channel!⁶
