

If John Lee cares so much about North Las Vegas, then why is being our Mayor his THIRD CHOICE for political office in just over a year?

Passed over for a run at Congress (his first choice), soundly rejected by the voters and beaten in State Senate 1 (his second choice), NOW John Lee has decided he wants to be Mayor of North Las Vegas (third choice).

John Lee has become a professional office seeker. He's in search of a job and he wants another paycheck from the taxpayers...again.

He wanted Washington D.C....until it became clear that wasn't going to happen. Then he wanted to go back to Carson City, until the voters said they didn't want him. Now, he's running for Mayor. We're his third choice.

"Lee's original plan this year was to abandon his senate seat in favor of running for Congress."

"I went back to Washington four times, said Lee. I had one foot in Washington and one foot in Nevada..."
